NEWS RELEASE

UPDATE ON DELAYED FILING OF FISCAL 2007 AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Vancouver, B.C., November 14, 2007 - Wildcat Silver Corporation (CNQ: WILD; OTC: WLDVF.PK) (“Wildcat” or the “Company”) advises there is no change to the status of the Management Cease Trade Order (“MCTO”) issued in connection with its Notice of Default filed on October 30, 2007 with respect to the delayed filing of its consolidated audited financial statements for the year ending June 30, 2007 (the “Financial Statements”).

The effect of the cease-trade order against Company management and directors is that management and directors may not purchase and sell Company securities until the Company has filed the Financial Statements and the Canadian Securities Administrators (“CSA”) has revoked the MCTO. This MCTO does not restrict the ability of Wildcat’s other shareholders to trade Wildcat shares.

Details with respect to the delay are provided in the Company’s news release dated October 30, 2007. Wildcat will, as required by CSA Staff Notice 57-103, continue to issue bi-weekly Default Status Reports with respect to the default in the filing of the Financial Statements.
